Domestic Violence Protocol

Utah State University

Community Centered Healthy Relationship Programs

#90FM0001 and #90YD0227

SCREENING:

- Domestic violence information will be given to each participant
  - At registration, or at the first class, participants will receive a Letter of Information informing them of the following:
    - Participation in the program and associated assessments is voluntary
    - Any child abuse and/or neglect, including child witness to domestic violence, will be reported to the Division of Child and Family Services (DCFS)
  - Included in the orientation packet there will be:
    - A fact sheet with domestic violence information and facts
    - A resources guide with telephone numbers for national, statewide, and local resources (e.g., shelters and service providers)

REQUIRED ACTION:

- If domestic violence is disclosed by the children in the program:
  - A confidential report will be made to DCFS by the facilitator
  - The family can remain in the program on a case-by-case basis
- If domestic violence is disclosed by an adult in the program:
  - No report will be made unless there were children who witnessed the incident
  - The facilitator will contact their assigned consultant
  - The facilitator will follow-up with the adult to encourage contact with the provided referrals
  - The family can remain in the program on a case-by-case basis
- If domestic violence is identified, then referrals will be made to other programs including:
  - Local domestic violence centers/shelters
  - Treatment providers

 "'In the presence of a child' means in the physical presence of a child; or having knowledge that a child is present and may see or hear an act of domestic violence." (UCA 76-5-109.1(1)(c)(i) (ii). Please call DCFS In-State Child Abuse Centralized Intake Hotline: 1-855-323-3237
