SCREENING:

- Domestic violence information will be given to the entire group at the following times:
  - At registration or at the first class, participants will sign an informed consent letter prior to participating in the program that states:
    - Participant is willingly attending the program classes
    - Participant understands that any child abuse and/or neglect, including child witness to domestic violence, will be reported to Division of Child and Family Services (DCFS). "In the presence of a child" means in the presence of a child or having knowledge that a child is present and may see or hear an act of domestic violence. (UCA 76-5-109.1(1)(c)(i) (ii). Please call DCFS In-State Child Abuse Intake Hotline: 1-800-678-9399
  - During orientation for the first class:
    - A fact sheet with basic domestic violence information and telephone numbers for resources/shelters will be handed out
  - During module on conflict resolution (Lesson 4):
    - Facilitators will distribute local agency brochures from the domestic violence shelters in their area—which they have collected prior to class
    - Facilitators will offer participants the option of leaving brochures and handouts at the class site if safety would be compromised by taking the materials home

REQUIRED ACTION:

- If domestic violence is disclosed by the children in the program:
  - A confidential report will be made to DCFS by the facilitator
  - The family can remain in the program on a case-by-case basis

- If domestic violence is disclosed by an adult in the program:
  - No report will be made unless there were children who witnessed the incident
  - The facilitator will contact their assigned consultant
  - The facilitator will follow-up with the adult to encourage contact with the provided referrals
  - The family can remain in the program on a case-by-case basis

- If domestic violence is identified, then referrals will be made to other programs including:
  - Local domestic violence centers/shelters
  - Treatment providers
