

4-H Western Horse Camp 2009

Rules & Regulations

- ❖ All Campers must wear cowboy boots with heels while riding.
- ❖ All campers are encouraged to stay at camp at all times. If for any reason a camper needs to leave they must be released by the camp chairperson (Karen/Leslie). A signed release must be given to the camp chairperson prior to camp by the parent stating reason for leaving camp and estimated departure and return to camp.
- ❖ Campers found to have left camp without permission will not be allowed back to camp.
- ❖ Campers are not allowed to drive while at camp.
- ❖ Appropriate clothing is to be worn at all times. Suggestive or revealing clothing is not allowed.
- ❖ Cell phone will be allowed at Camp. You can only use cell phones (this includes text message) at appropriate times. No cell phones (this includes texting) during instructional time or when activities are being conducted. Cell phones will be confiscated and returned at the end of camp if you are using them at these times. Please use this privilege wisely! If you need to contact your child you may call the chairperson (Karen Larsen 757-4054) or (Leslie Perkins 757-7878).
- ❖ Campers agree to be respectful of fellow campers, leaders and their horses.
- ❖ Safety always comes first!

I have read the Rules & Regulations for Horse Camp and agree to abide by these expectations.
