JUDGING

1. The decisions of the judges will be final.
2. In the event of limited numbers of entries, the judges may use discretion in making awards. Judges may not award any placing to an inferior item.
3. In the event there is only one entry in a category and no competition, prize money and/or ribbons may not be awarded.
4. Judges will be allowed to enter exhibits for display only.
5. Adult amateur and professional fine art and photographic divisions will be judged in each category with one each blue, red and white ribbon awarded accordingly to quality and quantity of entries.
6. High school and middle school work will be judged in each category with blue, red and white ribbons awarded according to quality and quantity of entries.
7. Combined youth photography and younger children's art work will be judged and all entries in these divisions will receive a ribbon award.
8. All entries will receive a judging sheet.
9. The People's Choice Award winner will be decided from votes cast by visitors to the show.
10. Work will be judged on the following criteria: overall design or composition, use of art elements, story telling, craftsmanship and artistic merit. Each division will be judged separately. Study work, consisting of compositions or drawings that are copied from the drawings, paintings or photos of other's work or work done in paint-along classes, will be displayed but will not be judged.

Entry forms will be provided at the time of entry. Questions? Call Scott Wakefield, 753-2970, Tuesday through Friday, between 1p.m. & 6 p.m., or the week prior & during the fair, 512-8578. I am looking for volunteer helpers for receiving, hanging & acting as volunteer hosts during the show.
