

OPEN CLASS-ADULT & YOUTH (AGES 16 & UNDER)
Agriculture - Horticulture

Taun Beddes, Chairman 752-6263
 Mark Ashcroft, Asst. Chairman 752-6263

1. Crop, fruit, and vegetable exhibits to be entered at the Home Arts Building from 8 a.m. to 9:30 a.m., Thursday, of fair week.
2. Each exhibitor is responsible to classify his exhibit. In case of doubt, the judge’s decision shall be considered final in the classification of any vegetable variety. Unworthy exhibits may be refused by the department supervisor or his authorized agent. (Uniform plates will be furnished by the fair, and exhibits must be placed on these by the exhibitor or his agents.)
3. Exhibitors should list the variety name of each entry under “Description of Exhibit” whether or not the premium list specifies a single variety name.
4. Limit of ten (10) entries per person.
5. No duplication of entries by other family members will be accepted.
6. Judging will commence Thursday at 10 a.m.

Rules

- All vegetables and fruit exhibits should be as near market maturity and as fresh as possible. All produce should be clean and free from spray residue or soil.
- Any crop which produces a top, such as carrot or beet, should have it removed within 1-inch of the vegetable.
- All specimens in an exhibit must be the same maturity, color, size, shape, and variety.
- Specimens should be free of blemish caused by insects, bruising, wind, etc.
- Entry must include the exact number of fruit or vegetable as specified in the category list.
- The age of exhibitor must be included in the proper section on the entry form.
- Youth enrolled in 4-H, who are entering a horticulture exhibit, are not eligible to enter the open youth division.
- The displays should be primarily produced by the participant and they must be the major contributor in the preparation of the display, creativity and labor in getting items ready to be shown. This includes time spent in the gardens where the items were grown. All participants and /or guardians of participants will be required to sign that their entries meet all guidelines listed.
- All participants must have entries ready by 9:30 a.m. This includes having paperwork completed and items properly displayed. Preparation areas will not be available in the judging area for things such as washing and cutting of produce.
- All produce must have been grown by the participant within the confines of Cache County.
- Accents are acceptable within displays but will not be the determining factor in winning entries. For those displays where accent items become a primary focus, a commendation ribbon may be awarded for the quality of the display and not the produce itself, unless produce is also of winning quality.
