

Holiday Eating

The holiday season is a great time to enjoy family, friends, and delicious foods. It is easy to get carried away without realizing it and spend too much money or eat too much food. Here are some ideas to get you through the holiday season without missing out on your holiday favorites.

Focus on you! Give yourself a gift this holiday season. Here are some ideas:

- Make time for family.
- Have festive meals by using simple decorations.
- Plan menus and stick to them.
- Involve children in holiday plans and food choices.
- Invite friends over for get-togethers with simple holiday foods and games.
- Be sure to include time to eat a variety of foods from the Food Guide Pyramid.
- Remember to take time for exercise.

Be sensible about food!! All foods can be enjoyed this holiday season. The key is to not overdo it. Here are some tips:

- Don't try to lose weight over the holiday season. Strive to maintain weight instead.
- Balance what you eat with other meals throughout the day. The day of a large dinner party have a small, low-calorie breakfast and lunch.
- Check out party choices and take a small to medium portion of only the foods that appeal to you the most. Limit second helpings.
- Take time to enjoy the delicious aromas and flavors of the holiday foods. It takes 20 minutes to feel full.
- Move away from the food when done eating to remove the temptation.
