

Food $ense New Employee Checklist

2017-18

Starting a new job is exciting, but can also be a little overwhelming. To help you stay on track as you become acquainted with your new responsibilities, we have listed certain requirements that need to be accomplished and a timeline for completion.

Make sure to send Marcia Gertge (Marcia.gertge@usu.edu) copies of all training certificates and dates of completion. The supervisor may also choose to upload these documents to their county's Box folder.
