SAFETY MESSAGE

Proper Operation of Firearms and Archery Equipment

The firearms and archery equipment that Intermediate and Senior youth bring should be in proper working order. All shooting sports equipment should be sighted in before the initial starting date. The loading, firing, and ejection mechanisms of firearms should operate correctly to prevent ammunition jams and delays caused by malfunctions. Archery equipment, specifically compound bows, should be properly maintained and adjusted. If a youth's equipment is determined to be unsafe in anyway, they will not be allowed to use that equipment, but they may borrow a 4-H firearm or bow to participate in that week's activities.

Handling of Firearms and Archery Equipment

No broadheads allowed. Arrows must be transported in a quiver. Loose arrows are not allowed and arrows must remain in the quiver until students are on the range and instructed to remove the arrows. All firearms must be transported unloaded and should be carried in a gun case. Firearms are to remain unloaded and in their cases until youth are on the range and instructed to remove the air rifle, rifle, shotgun, or muzzleloader.

When firearms are not in a case and they are being handled or moved the following rules apply:

- Action open
- Muzzle up
- Youth will be instructed when to load their firearm while on the firing range.
- Only while on the firing line and after the Range Safety Officer gives the command can youth load and discharge their firearm.
- When firearms are not in a case and they are being moved they should be held with both hands, pointed upward, and positioned at a height so the muzzles of all firearms are above the heads of all people present.
- When not being used, all firearms should be in a case or setting in a gun rack with all ammunition removed and action open.
