The Millard County 4-H Livestock Ambassador program strives to provide high school aged 4-H members the opportunity to develop and practice leadership skills related to mentoring other youth, and to become advocates for animal agriculture.

As a part of the program the youth will be in charge of hosting clinics, and seminars with in Millard County to help mentor other youth with in the county with Animal Agriculture and be a part of a service project.

If you are interested in being a part of this Ambassador Team please fill out the following application and return back to Shelly Finlinson by November 30th 2019.

Livestock Ambassador Application

Name: __________________________________________

Age: ___________________  Grade in school: __________________________

Parents: __________________________________________

Best way to contact you: ____________________________

Animals that you show: _______________ Years you have been in 4H Showing: ________

Why do you want to be a Millard County Livestock Ambassador?

Tell about your overall 4-H experience (projects completed, leadership experience, other 4-H related activities):

What other activities, jobs and sports do you participate in outside of 4-H?