

“The Good Life”
Retirement Series

Workshop Location: Cache County Administration Building
179 North Main, Multipurpose Room, Suite 111
Logan, Utah

Time: 7:00 p.m. – 8:30 p.m.

Cost: Free

Reservations: Contact Adrie Roberts, USU Extension Agent, (435) 755-1572.

“What is Your Long-Term Care Plan?”

Wednesday, June 28, 2006

Speaker: Bret Hortin

“Estate Planning Issues”

Wednesday, July 26, 2006

Speaker: TBA

No Class in August

“Cutting Household Costs and Expenses”

Wednesday, September 27, 2006

Speakers: Adrie Roberts, USU Extension Family and Consumer Sciences Agent, Cache County and Melanie Jewkees, USU Family Finance Graduate Student

Looking for ways to cut down on the high cost of living? Want to put more money into your retirement account – but just don’t have any extra money? Do you have too much month at the end of your money? This workshop will literally give you hundreds of ideas for trimming expenses in your home and life.

“Real Estate: The Good, the Bad, and the Ugly”

Tuesday, October 24, 2006

Speaker: Kin Sorensen, Mortgage Banker

Real Estate is often thought of as a good investment for our retirement. But is it a practical investment in Cache Valley? Do property values appreciate to the extend another investment would appreciate? Join us to hear Kim Sorensen explore the in’s and out’s of the real estate market as an investment tool.

“Setting Financial Goals”

Wednesday, November 29, 2006

Speaker: Alena Johnson, USU Instructor

Alena teaches personal and family finance to 500 USU students in class and 500 USU students on the internet each semester. Her upbeat and practical views on money management make her presentations enlightening and enjoyable. Alena will help us chart our financial direction by teaching how to set attainable goals.