

Ocean

You are one of the countless water molecules in the ocean and you stay there. Stay at ocean.

You are one of the countless water molecules in the ocean and you stay there. Stay at ocean.

You evaporate into the air. Go to Cloud.

You evaporate into the air. Go to Cloud.

A kelp plant takes you in, releases you through its leaf, and transpires you into the air. Go to Cloud.

A kelp plant takes you in. Go to Plant.
