BYLAWS OF THE BOX ELDER COUNTY 4-H WESTERN HORSE PROJECT PROGRAM

ARTICLE I – NAME

- I. The name of this organization shall be:
The Box Elder County 4-H Western Horse Project Program

ARTICLE II - ORGANIZATION

- I. The Box Elder County 4-H Western Horse Project Program is organized and composed of a Horse Council, 4-H youth members, all acting adult 4-H horse club leaders, parents or guardians of the 4-H youth members, 4-H alumni, interested community volunteers, and the USU County Extension Agent or staff member.
 - A. All individuals must reside within Box Elder County, Utah, except as provided under Article X Paragraph III, entitled Out of County 4-H youth.
 - B. The Horse Council is the Board of Trustees of the organization and will oversee all aspects of the Box Elder County 4-H Western Horse Project Program.
- II. The fiscal year shall be from September 1st to August 31st.

ARTICLE III - PURPOSE

- I. The purpose of the Box Elder County 4-H Western Horse Project Program is designed to emphasize youth development using the horse as the vehicle:
 - A. The 4-H Horse Program is designed to emphasize youth development. The horse should be a vehicle that reflects in its actions the knowledge and skills learned by its rider.
 - B. Encourage youth to develop leadership abilities, build character, and assume citizenship responsibilities.
 - C. Encourage youth to develop sportsmanship, cooperation, decision-making ability, and public speaking skills through participation in demonstrations, tours, judging, and/or exhibits.
 - D. Encourage youth to acquire skills in horse management by owning or leasing a horse of any type (i.e. pony, draft, mule), being responsible for it, to learn horsemanship skills, and understand breeding, training, and raising of horses as a business and to explore career opportunities within the horse industry.
 - E. Encourage youth to develop skills, knowledge, and attitudes for lifelong use and to share those acquired skills, knowledge, and abilities with others.
 - F. Provide services to all persons regardless of race, sex, color, religion, national origin or handicap.

ARTICLE IV – AMENDMENTS TO THE BY-LAWS

- I. All amendments or alterations in whole or part toward these By-laws must take place according to Article VIII, paragraph VII of these bylaws.

ARTICLE V – CODE OF CONDUCT

- I. A primary goal of the 4-H program is to build character while participating in 4-H. All youth and adults are expected to abide by the following behavior during ALL 4-H programs and events, regardless of the type:
 - A. Exhibit positive character and behavior including (but not limited to) trustworthiness, responsibility, respectfulness, caring, citizenship and fairness.
 - B. Attend all sessions as part of a planned program and be in the assigned area at all times.
 - C. Follow guidelines and rules established for the planned programs.
 - D. Be responsive to the reasonable requests of the 4-H staff/club leaders and respectful of the needs for their personal safety and the safety of others.
 - E. Dress appropriately, use appropriate language and respect the rights of others.
 - F. Be respectful of public or private property and be responsible for any damage, theft or misconduct.
 - G. No possession or use of alcohol, illegal drugs, or tobacco products.
 - H. Individuals will not behave recklessly, engage in sexual misconduct, or assault, threaten, or harm another person.
 - I. Individuals will promote the spirit of inclusion and comply with equal opportunity and anti-discrimination laws.
- II. All individuals have read the 4-H Code of Conduct and agree to live up to these expectations while participating in 4-H programs and events. Individuals are aware that all their actions and decisions affect others.
- III. All individuals realize that their failure to act with good character could result in disciplinary action and they are willing to accept the appropriate and logical consequences of their actions.
- IV. As a participant in a 4-H sponsored program, all individuals release the County, State Extension programs and personnel, Utah State University, leaders, clinicians, volunteers, and those affiliated from liability should an individual accidentally be injured due in part to their own negligence.
- V. Good Sportsmanship shall prevail at all times. A 4-H youth member will be subject to disciplinary action as determined by the Horse Council and these bylaws, including suspension, FOR VERBAL OR PHYSICAL ABUSE OF PEOPLE OR HORSES COMMITTED BY THE 4-H YOUTH MEMBER OR ANY FAMILY MEMBER OR ASSOCIATE.
 1. Examples of verbal abuse are listed, but this is not an all-inclusive list:

abuse	invectives	sarcasm
crude remarks	irony	scolding
hooting	mockery	screaming
inappropriate jokes	obscenities	swearing
innuendoes	quips	teasing
insinuations	reprimands	threats
insolence	reproaches	whispering
insults	rumors	yelling

- B. Physical abuse includes abusive use of aids or tack, including, but not limited to, bats, spurs, whips, reins, or over and under ropes. A horse can be corrected without abuse.
- C. Physical abuse also includes administering performance altering drugs or substances to horses.
- VI. Rudeness, disrespect, and/or unkindness to any individual or animal will not be tolerated.
- VII. All individuals violating the code of conduct, regardless of whether or not they started it or if they were just reacting to someone else's poor conduct, will be subject to disciplinary action.

ARTICLE VI – POLICIES

- I. The basic policies of the Box Elder County 4-H Western Horse Project Program are:
 - A. At all 4-H contests, events, and practices, each 4-H member must provide the horse he/she uses. The horse may be leased or borrowed, providing the member has access to the horse at all times during the project year and has major responsibility for its care and maintenance. This does not necessarily include financial support. This rule applies to all four horse disciplines.
 - B. The 4-H youth member's project is centered on one primary project horse, but additional horses may be used for breeding, the two-handed training classes, English competition, colt training, trail riding, etc. See Article XIV, paragraph VIII of these bylaws for more information.
 - 1. One horse per person and one person per horse at shows. Situations requiring a substitution are permitted when conditions stated in these bylaws under Article XIV, paragraph V are met.
 - C. At no time is a 4-H youth member allowed to attend without an adult parent, guardian, club leader, or associate, present unless specifically stated otherwise.
 - 1. Except for Horse Camp.
 - 2. Exceptions may be granted by obtaining acknowledgment and grant of permission from a Horse Council Member accepting responsibility for the 4-H youth member.
- II. To meet youth development purposes and maintain a code of conduct as defined above including to ensure respect for clinicians, leaders, or other instructors:
 - A. During times of instruction at any event only youth may be in the arena.
 - 1. Exception is for when the clinician or adult volunteer who is teaching specifically requests another adult to enter the arena to help.
 - B. During times of instruction at any event only youth may be on horseback in the arena.
 - 1. Exception is for a clinician, adult club leader, or adult volunteer, who is teaching the instruction, elects to be on horseback for demonstration and teaching purposes.
 - C. If a parent needs to help their child one-on-one for a few minutes they may pull their child aside to do so. The horse council will accommodate individuals with this request within reason.

ARTICLE VII – DISCIPLINARY ACTION

- I. Disciplinary action may include, but is not limited to, loss of privileges, consequences, and/or suspension from the event or program, or for future programs or events.
 - A. Disciplinary Action involving suspension from the Box Elder County 4-H Western Horse Project Program or any of its meetings or non-show events requires approval from a neutral party such as the USU County Extension Agent or staff member.
 - B. Disciplinary Action involving suspension should not be used for a first offense.
- II. Grievances, Complaints, or Reports of Abusive Behavior from any individual must be submitted to the Horse Council in writing with a $25.00 deposit for review.
 - A. If the Horse Council determines the complaint is valid the $25.00 deposit will be returned and the Horse Council will take appropriate disciplinary action.
 1. No decision can override judges' placings at shows or competitors' points or rankings.
 - B. If the Horse Council determines the complaint is not valid the $25.00 deposit will not be returned and will be deposited into the program's account. No disciplinary action will be taken. The matter will be considered closed.
- III. Members of the Horse Council, Sub-Committees Chairpersons and Co-Chairpersons who do not meet and comply with out-lined responsibilities and duties may be reviewed after a formal complaint has been made to the USU County Extension Agent or staff member.

ARTICLE VIII – MEETINGS

- I. Riding Meetings
 - A. All county Riding Meetings are overseen by the Horse Council.
 - B. All youth members of the 4-H Western Horse Project Program within Box Elder County may assemble to practice together on Tuesday evenings at the Golden Spike Fairgrounds Small Indoor Arena in Tremonton, Utah.
 - C. Winter riding practices will be held when the indoor arena is available during the months of January through May and may consist of games, open ride time, or instruction clinics given by Horse Ambassadors, or 4-H Leaders, clinicians, or youth teaching lessons and/or clinics.
 1. The Horse Ambassadors will be responsible for organizing the winter riding practice meetings and will be overseen by the Ambassador Chair.
 - D. Other riding meetings may include horse camp, and team practices for the individuals qualified to compete at the Region or State competitions.
- II. Education Night Meetings
 - A. Education Night Meetings are available to all 4-H youth members and do not require ownership or use of a horse to participate.
 - B. Education Night Meetings are non-riding meetings intended to expand the 4-H youths' horse knowledge within the 4-H Horse Project Program.

- C. Education Night Meetings will be held monthly and the Education Chair will oversee and be responsible for organizing the Education Night Meetings at their discretion.
 - 1. Examples of Education Night topics may include, but aren't limited to, the Utah 4-H Horse Study Material, Horse Husbandry, Portfolios, and the Horseless contests including Horse Public Speaking, Horse Judging, Horse Bowl, Horse Demonstrations, and Hippology.

 - 1. The time and location of the Horse Council Meetings will be determined by the officers.
 - 2. Horse Council Meetings may be held via teleconferencing or electronic means.
 - B. The purpose of the Horse Council Meetings will be primarily business and planning.
 - C. All Horse Council Meetings are open to all members of the Box Elder County 4-H Western Horse Project Program, parents, leaders and volunteers. The Horse Council will be notified in advance about who wishes to attend so arrangements can be made for an appropriate location.
- V. Parent's Meetings
 - A. Parents Meetings will be held periodically starting in January and continuing until the State Horse Show.
 - 1. The time and place will vary.
 - B. Horse Council will preside at these meetings.
 - C. Meetings are designed to keep parents, leaders and children informed as well as provide everyone an opportunity to bring up concerns and ideas to improve the program.
- VI. 4-H Western Horse Achievement Night
 - A. Year-End awards will be awarded at an annual recognition meeting called the 4-H Western Horse Achievement Night, which is to be held at some time during the last quarter of the calendar year as determined by the Horse Council.
 - 1. These are the minimum earnable awards for each year.
 - a. Regular Individual Show Awards: Top 10 overall in each age group with the top 3 overall receiving buckles, Top Judged Events, Top Speed Events, and by nomination Outstanding Sportsmanship, and Most Improved.
 - b. Two-Handed & In-Hand Show Awards: At the horse council's discretion participation recognition will be awarded.
 - c. 10-year Buckles: For individuals that participated in at least one county 4-H show each year for 10 consecutive years.
 - 2. Additional awards can be given from year to year at the discretion of the horse council.

- B. Newly elected Horse Council officers will also be announced at the Achievement Night.
 - 1. The President-Elect will oversee and be responsible for organizing the Achievement Night meeting.
- VII. Rules Meeting
- A. Annual Rules Meeting will take place at the March Horse Council meeting.
 - B. All changes to By-laws, common practices, and Horse Show Rules must take place at this meeting.
 - C. All proposals for changes must be submitted in writing to the Horse Council 15 days prior to the meeting.
 - D. Must have approval of Horse Council and Extension Agent or staff member to be taken to vote.
 - E. There will be no rule changes outside of the March Rules Meeting.
 - 1. The only exceptions are to be made by the Horse Council if a rule is not in working order or if the Council sees the need for change, by a Horse Council unanimous vote.

ARTICLE IX – VOTING AND ELECTIONS

- I. All family members of the same household of 4-H youth or adult 4-H leader volunteers represented at meetings shall have one vote per family; meaning all members should reach an agreement amongst themselves and cast one vote. Under special circumstances, such as youth decisions, each youth and/or person present at the meeting shall have one vote.
- II. Each member of the Horse Council shall have one vote. This vote is in addition to their family vote.
- III. A simple majority of those attending is required for MOST motions to be passed.
- IV. Changes to horse show rules require a two-thirds vote of each family participating in the vote to pass.
- V. Any changes to the Horse 4-H program are subject to review and approval by the Horse Council.
- VI. The USU County Extension agent may override any decisions if the change is not in compliance with 4-H rules and standards after presenting proof or evidence to the Horse Council.
- VII. Horse Council Officer Election ballots will be sent out to each family registered in the Box Elder County 4-H Western Horse Project Program each year, during the month of August.
 - A. Ballots may be sent and tallied electronically.
 - B. Votes for Horse Council Officer positions will be due September 1st and tallied by the current President-Elect.
 - C. The results will be announced at the annual 4-H Horse Achievement Night meeting.

ARTICLE X – GENERAL MEMBERSHIP RESPONSIBILITIES

- I. All 4-H members must be registered through the USU Box Elder County Extension office or online at 4h.zsuite.org.

- A. Additional registrations are required to participate in some project specific events; examples include, but are not limited to, Horse Camp, County Shows, Regional Shows, State Shows, and the Achievement Night.
 - 1. Registration must take place before participation in the 4-H project program or before the start of any project specific event, unless otherwise specified by a specific deadline date stated.
- B. Registration in the Box Elder County 4-H Western Horse Project Program signifies that the participant, their family members, and associates agree to be governed by these bylaws and will adhere to them in an effort to better the organization for all involved.
- II. 4-H is a volunteer organization and as such all members wishing to participate are expected to actively volunteer or assist where requested from time to time.
- III. Out of County 4-H Youth – Youth are required to participate in the county in which they reside. In rare circumstances, exceptions are granted. To request an exemption a member must:
 - A. Write a letter to both USU Extension Agents (home county and county where child wishes to enroll). If both Extension Agents agree with the request, the request will be forwarded to the state review committee to make a final ruling. The member will be notified of the decision.
 - B. Exemptions must be requested EVERY YEAR, following the procedures outlined.
 - C. If a 4-H member of the Box Elder County 4-H Horse Program is granted an exemption to participate in another county, he or she may NOT return to Box Elder County 4-H Program for the rest of the year.
- IV. Members are eligible to vote in elections according to the terms within these bylaws.
- V. Members may attend any meetings they wish according to the terms within these bylaws.

ARTICLE XI - DUES

- I. Dues are assessed at the time of registration within the 4-H organization each year; however, particular 4-H project programs may have additional dues.
 - A. Dues which are assessed for registration within the 4-H organization are set by USU Extension Service.
 - 1. These are currently set at $10.00 and may change at any time without requiring a revision to these bylaws.
- II. An annual Western Horse program enrollment fee of $50.00 per 4-H member is due September 1st each year and must be paid before participation in any Western Horse program activity or event.
 - A. Exception: Horse Camp is a project recruiting activity and is open to any 4-H member; therefore, it does not require the Western Horse program enrollment or fee for participation. However, the 4-H membership and event registration fee is still required for participation in the horse camp.
 - B. Dues which are assessed for project specific programs and events are set by the Horse Council.

- III. Certain project events may have additional registrations and dues. Examples of these events include, but are not limited to, Indoor Winter Riding Practices, Horse Camp, County Shows, Regional Shows, State Shows, and the Achievement Night.
 - A. These are currently set as follows, but are subject to change at any time at the discretion of the Horse Council without requiring a revision to these bylaws:
 - 1. Horse Camp is $35 per 4-H youth member.
 - 2. County Shows are $10 per Show per 4-H youth member.
 - 3. Regional Show is $15 per youth member.

ARTICLE XIV – BOX ELDER COUNTY HORSE SHOWS

The basic rules contained in the Utah State 4-H Horse Show Rule book will be followed at all shows. The attached rules are a supplement for use in Box Elder County for the In-hand, Two-handed, and the regular Individual Horse Shows and they take precedence over the state rule book.

- I. Dress Code for all Box Elder County Horse Shows
 - A. Will promote safe and modest clothing.
 - B. Western Hat or Helmet
 - 1. Helmet is required for all events on horseback.
 - 2. A western hat may be worn in lieu of a helmet during the Test and the Showmanship event.
 - C. White Shirt
 - 1. Must button or snap down the front
 - 2. Must have collar, cuffs, and long sleeves
 - D. Blue or Black Denim Jeans
 - 1. No Chaps.
 - E. Western Boots
 - F. Western Belt
 - G. 4-H Patch
 - 1. Placed on upper left sleeve
 - 2. If a patch is not worn, it is a drop in ribbon
 - H. Exceptions to the county dress code:
 - i. During Speed Events a T-shirt or short or long sleeve western shirt is allowed in place of white shirt.
 - a. 4-H patch or logo is still required on the left sleeve during speed events.
 - ii. During Speed Events the Western Belt is optional.
 - iii. Junior participants may wear chaps during bareback equitation.
- II. Contestant Numbers are assigned and issued at the first county show each year and will be the same for the remainder of that year.
 - A. A Contestant Number is attached to the contestant's back for the Test and all non-riding events; and it is attached to the saddle pad, approximately over the horse's flanks on each side, for all riding events.
 - B. If numbers are lost or destroyed throughout the year new numbers can be created using cardstock and dark, thick ink in a font large enough to see from a distance of fifty feet.
- III. At the discretion of the horse council, the test can be administered via paper or electronically, prior to, or on the day of each horse show, and it can be administered as a closed book or open book test.

1. At the discretion of the horse council, a separate test may be given at both the regular individual horse show and the two-handed horse show, or a single test may be given and the same score will be used for both shows at or prior to each of the three county horse shows.
- IV. All placings are final when the judge leaves the show grounds.
- A. Show specific grievances will be submitted to the Horse Council before the judge leaves the show grounds.
 1. $25 Grievance deposit is required according to Article VII, Paragraph II in these bylaws.
 - B. Show management, judges or ring stewards have authority to excuse from shows those who refuse to abide by the 4-H code of conduct or follow the county policies found in these bylaws.
 1. If a contestant is excused from the show they forfeit any points they earned during that show prior to their dismissal.
 2. Show Excusals shall be for the remainder of that show, Show class excusals are for the remainder of that show class; and, these are different from a suspension under the disciplinary action section of these bylaws.
- V. Always keep a horse's length spacing.
- A. A red ribbon in a horse's tail indicates that the horse may kick.
 - B. A red ribbon in a horse's mane indicates that the horse may bite.
 - a. A horse that has the appropriate red ribbons(s) attached, that bites or kicks at an approaching horse, will not be penalized for such actions.
- VI. Horse Substitution at county shows:
- A. Unsafe horse – if a horse is deemed unsafe by a leader or Horse Council the member may substitute a horse.
 1. The new horse will have to be shown at two of the Box Elder County 4-H qualifying horse shows in order to qualify for Region/State shows.
 2. The member cannot go back to the unsafe horse unless proven to be safe.
 - B. Injured or ill horse – A contestant may substitute a horse for an injured or ill horse at the county shows by submitting a written request to the horse council.
 1. Points earned with one horse are not transferable to another horse.
 2. If the first project horse has qualified for the Region/State show, and that horse is proven sound by a veterinarian they may use that horse for the show.
 - a. This will be the horse they will deem as their primary project horse.
 - b. The horse/rider that qualified for Region/State is the horse/rider that goes.
- VII. Portfolios are not required and will not be tallied into show or year-end totaled points, placings, or rankings.
- VIII. Only one horse per rider and one rider per horse for each project within the Western Horse 4-H program. This means the most project horses a 4-H member can show each year is 3 horses, one that qualifies as an in-hand project, one that qualifies as a - two-handed project horse, and one that qualifies to show in the regular individual horse show.

- A. The same horse can meet requirements to be used by the same rider at multiple shows.
 - 1. If a two-handed horse is shown in the regular individual show in a snaffle bit, it is an automatic ribbon drop; however, if the horse is shown in a curb bit, it will be disqualified from all future two-handed shows.
 - 2. If an in-hand project horse is shown under saddle at any 4-H horse show, it will be disqualified from all future in-hand shows.
 - B. In-hand and Two-handed project horses must be declared and registered in the county as an in-hand project or a ridden two-handed project horse by the registration deadline of the first county horse show for the year.
- IX. Novice classes will be offered for those 4-H youth in any age division that are in their first two years of Western Horse program participation.
- A. Novice classes will be walk/trot classes and riders won't be required to lope in any event.
 - B. Novice classes don't earn year-end ranking awards.
 - 1. However, Novice class participants may receive a participation recognition at the year-end awards ceremony at the discretion of the horse council.
 - C. A Novice participant can move up to the regular classes at any time.
 - 1. Once a participant moves up from the Novice classes to the regular classes, they begin earning points towards the year-end ranking awards.
 - 2. Once a participant moves up from the Novice Classes to the regular classes, they cannot move back down into the Novice classes.
 - D. Novice participants will not qualify for Region or State Shows unless they move from the Novice class to the regular classes after the first show; thereby meeting the minimum 2 of 3 shows qualification requirements and the necessary point accruals to qualify.

ARTICLE XV – QUALIFYING FOR REGIONAL & STATE HORSE SHOWS

- I. To qualify for the regional or state horse shows, each contestant and their designated project horse must have attended and completed all regular class events in a minimum of two out of three qualifying county shows for each project area they wish to compete in.
 - A. The rider/horse contestants earning the most points in each age group (Juniors, Intermediates, and Seniors) of the county regular individual horse show will make up the three Region Teams and they will also be the contestants eligible for the State Individual Horse Show Contests.
 - 1. The number of competitors that make up each age group regional team is between 5 and 8 members and is determined by the hosting county each year.
 - 2. The number of exhibitors from Box Elder County allowed to enter the State Individual Horse Show or the State Two-Handed Horse Show is determined by the Utah State 4-H Horse Council and will differ from that of the Region Show.

- B. Points from regular classes are calculated and averaged according to the Utah State 4-H Western Horse Rule Book rules from each contestant's two highest point-earning county horse shows.
 - 1. Exception: Box Elder County will not award points for the portfolio.
- C. In the event of a tie, the test score shall be the tiebreaker.
 - 1. In the event of a tied test score, test questions will be chosen at random until the tie can be broken.
- II. Must compete at Region to go to State, except under special circumstances that have been approved by the Horse Council in advance.
 - A. Special Circumstances may include but are not limited to injury to horse or rider, family death, or horse death.

ARTICLE XVI – REGION HORSE SHOWS

- I. Horse must be sound to attend.
 - A. Parent/Leader must immediately inform the Horse Council and Box Elder County 4-H agent if a horse is ill or injured.
 - B. There will be NO SUBSTITUTIONS OF HORSE unless a vet note is received on their business letterhead.
- II. Region team qualifiers will notify the Horse Council a minimum of one week in advance if they are not able to attend.
 - A. The horse/rider with the next highest points from the regular classes of the county shows will be the alternate and will compete in their place.
 - 1. Failure to notify the Horse Council will forfeit their place at the State show; an alternate will compete at the State Show in their place.
 - 2. The alternate for the Region team will be notified.
- III. If a horse is ill or injured the morning of the Region Show and there is no time to call the alternate then the Region Team for that age group will participate short.

ARTICLE XVII – STATE HORSE SHOWS

- I. Horse must be sound to attend and will participate in all events.
 - A. Parent/Leader must notify the Horse Council and Box Elder County 4-H agent immediately of an ill or injured horse.
 - B. A letter must be submitted stating the illness or injury with a veterinarian stating diagnosis and prognosis.
 - C. There will be NO SUBSTITUTION OF HORSE unless a vet note is received on their business letterhead.
- II. If an alternate is approved the alternate for the State Individual 4-H Horse show will be notified and allowed to compete at the State competitions.
 - A. The alternate will keep any awards they earn at the State Horse Show competition.
 - B. Original qualifier will still qualify for the county level awards if nonparticipation is result of a horse council pre-approved special circumstance such as, but not limited to, a horses' or members' injury.
