Qualifying Requirements for Western Horse Camp:

First Step Camp

First Step Camp is designed to provide an educational experience for 4-H members new to the horse project. While all 4-H members in his/her first year of Horse 4-H are encouraged to attend First Step Camp, it is required that all junior age youth must complete First Step Camp prior to attending Western Camp. First Step provides a good experience for younger members to learn more about the project, have the opportunity to pass off the Tenderfoot I and Tenderfoot II ranks, and gain more skills before doing other activities. First Step Camp is a one day camp normally held the third Monday of June.

Juniors (grade 3-5)

All 3rd grade 4-H members are encouraged to attend First Step Camp and are not eligible to attend Western Horse Camp.

Juniors in grades 4-5 should have attended First Step Camp the previous year and must have passed off the Tenderfoot I and Tenderfoot II Rank Advancement to attend Horse Camp. Youth must be able to walk and trot his/her horse with confidence. Fourth and 5th grade Junior division members cannot attend Western Horse camp in the same year they attend First Step Camp. In extreme situations where the 5th grade youth can demonstrate exceptional ability and skills; an exception to this rule may be granted with approval of the Western Horse Camp committee.

All first year campers must take the Horsemanship class at Western Camp. Juniors who are second year Western Campers are encouraged to take Horsemanship, but may sign up for another course with approval of the Camp Committee.

Intermediates (grades 6-8)

Intermediate age youth may attend Western Horse Camp for the first time if they have passed off the Tenderfoot I and Tenderfoot II Rank advancements, and can walk, trot and lope his/her horse with confidence. If an intermediate age youth has not attended First Step Camp or Western Camp in the past, he/she will be required to pass off the required skills to attend Western Camp with the Camp Director or a designated leader other than a parent of the 4-H Member prior to registering for Camp. Intermediate age youth attending Western Camp for the first time must take the Horsemanship class.

Seniors (grades 9-12)

Senior age members who have passed of the Tenderfoot I and Tenderfoot II ranks may attend Western Horse Camp if they can walk, trot and lope his/her horse with confidence. Any senior age youth who has not attended Western Camp in the past, and has not attended First Step Camp will need to pass off the required skills with the Camp Directors or a designated leader other than a parent of the 4-H member prior to registering for camp. Senior age youth must participate in the Horsemanship class in his/her first year at Horse Camp, unless they have significant experience and receive approval from the Camp Committee or designee to register for other classes.

4-H Horse Camp Rules and Regulations

- RESPECT: Campers are asked at all times to respect your leaders, teachers, belongings and property, horses, and those around you! Foul language will not be allowed. NO drama please.
- NEVER GO ANYWHERE ALONE: Use the buddy system. At all times, especially at dark and from stalls to sleeping quarters.
- YOUR HORSE COMES BEFORE YOU: You will not be served food, be allowed to attend classes / games /etc., until your horse is fed, watered, and stall is clean.
- ON TIME: You need to be on time and on task! Do not be late!
- NO LEAVING THE FAIR GROUNDS WITHOUT AUTHORIZED PERMISSION: All campers are asked to stay at camp at all times. If for any reason a camper needs to leave they must be released by the camp chairpersons (Aaron, Tera, or Wendy). A signed release must be given to a camp chairperson prior to camp by the parent stating reason for leaving camp and estimated time of departure and return to camp. Campers found to have left camp without permission will not be allowed back to camp.
- HELP: Help all those around you. We all need help at times, especially the younger members.
- OPEN MINDED: Campers are asked to be open-minded and participate in all activities presented at camp.
- APPROPRIATE ATTIRE: Appropriate clothing is to be worn at all times. Must have pants, boots with heels, shirts must have sleeves, and a helmet MUST be worn at all times while on horseback. No clothing with tobacco, alcohol or drug references or inappropriate messages will be allowed. (If in doubt, don't wear it)
- RESPECT FACILITIES: No horses or horse trailers on grass. Please Park your trailers on pavement. We are non-paying guests of the fairgrounds so please take care of all facilities.
- CLEAN UP: Everyone must participate in cleaning stalls, putting up and taking down panels, making sure that all areas of fair grounds are clean.
- HAVE FUN: We want everyone to have fun and make a memorable experience!
