Cache County Junior Livestock Scholarship Application Information

APPLICATION DUE MARCH 31

No applications will be accepted after this date.

Dear 4-H/FFA Junior Livestock Program Participants:

Cache County Junior Livestock Scholarship committee is taking scholarship applications. Application forms are available from the 4-H office or FFA Advisors at your high school or online at <http://extension.usu.edu/cache> and follow the “Youth and 4-H” link then “4-H Junior Livestock” link.

Eligibility Requirements

- To be eligible for the scholarship youth must have participated in the Junior Livestock program for at least the past 3 years, either through FFA or 4-H
- Applicants should be in the 12th grade as of January 1 of the year. Youth not planning to attend college this fall, but plan to enroll in the future should apply now and if awarded, the scholarship amount will be deferred until the student enrolls.
- This scholarship is valid only for the student’s Freshman year
- Applications will be evaluated based on Junior Livestock program involvement, career goals relative to agriculture-related business or industry, leadership experiences, involvement in extracurricular programs and financial need.
- Amount of the scholarship award is dependent on the number of qualified recipients. Scholarship is valid toward tuition, fees and books at an accredited college or university.
- Applications must be returned to the Extension Office by March 31, of the application year, by 5:00 PM for consideration.

For more information, contact the Cache County Junior Livestock Committee, or your school’s FFA advisor.
