USU Extension Professionals Make Connections in the Philippines

08/10/2020

USU Extension Professionals Make Connections in the Philippines

CWEL Director Kelly Kopp (second from left in back) participated in a trip to the Philippines in order to learn more about Extension abroad and make connections with program administrators, practitioners and academics in the field.

Utah State University Extension faculty members travelled to the Philippines earlier this spring to participate in the first International Extension Professional Development program.

Read about the trip.