TEEN COUNCIL

DC 4-H Teen Council needs you! We are looking for 4-H teens in grades 7 - 12 who want to learn leadership and communication skills while having fun and making new friends. Council members play a key role in planning and running county events. This is the perfect club for existing teen members to bring a friend to introduce to DC 4-H.

Teen Council meets at the USU Utah House on the fourth Tuesday of each month at 6:00 pm. For more info, contact Lauren Montgomery.

OUTDOOR REC PROGRAMS

DC 4-H Outdoor programs is building two great clubs for youth that want to get outside and be active!

Mountain Biking club meets on the 2nd & 4th Mondays of each month. Youth will learn riding techniques, bicycle maintenance, and trail etiquette. Locations will vary for each meeting.

Shooting Sports club meets on the 3rd Tuesday of each month starting in April. Club members will learn safety, handling, and shooting skills for several different skill sets. Locations will vary.

If your family is interested in joining either of these clubs as members or as volunteers, or if you have any other questions, contact Taral Hull.
