

Self-Mastery Questions- Module 6

Part 1

- T/F The Cottage Program requires a business license, food handler's permit, and UDAF registration; the Homemade Food Act only requires a business license.
  - True
- T/F The Homemade Food Act does not allow raw milk or raw dairy products.
  - True
- T/F The Cottage Program allows all baked goods.
  - False, no baked good with vegetables or cream/dairy fillings
- T/F There are specific labeling requirements for both the Cottage Program and the Homemade Food Act
  - True
- T/F Once you're allowed to sell your product under the Cottage Program and the Homemade Food Act, you can sell anywhere.
  - False, there are specific restrictions on where you can sell under each program.

Part 2

- T/F You should clean surfaces and equipment first, and then wipe with sanitizing solution.
  - True
- T/F Sanitizing just needs to be done before you start production, and other times you deem necessary.
  - False, you need to sanitize before and after your production and once an hour during production.
- T/F You can store cloths in sanitizing solution when not being used.
  - True

Key:

Part 1

The Cottage Program requires a business license, food handler's permit, and UDAF registration; the Homemade Food Act only requires a business license.

True

The Homemade Food Act does not allow raw milk or raw dairy products.

True

The Cottage Program allows all baked goods.

False, no baked good with vegetables or cream/dairy fillings

There are specific labeling requirements for both the Cottage Program and the Homemade Food Act

True

Once you're allowed to sell your product under the Cottage Program and the Homemade Food Act, you can sell anywhere.

False, there are specific restrictions on where you can sell under each program.

Part 2

You should clean surfaces and equipment first, and then wipe with sanitizing solution.

True

Sanitizing just needs to be done before you start production, and other times you deem necessary.

False, you need to sanitize before and after your production and once an hour during production.

You can store cloths in sanitizing solution when not being used.

True