

EPSILON SIGMA PHI ANNUAL MEETING
September 29, 1976 - 5:30 p.m.
Senate Chamber
Utah State University

President Bessie K. Lemon conducted and welcomed members to the annual meeting. Invocation was by Anson Call.

Amy R. Kearsley introduced and gave purpose of Epsilon Sigma Phi.

So that new members could attend the meeting, they were initiated early in the program. Paul Grimshaw, Vice President and Elizabeth Darley, Secretary-treasurer, introduced new members, and Paul Grimshaw read the creed. Bessie Lemon presented the oath to new members. Initiation was conducted and the following welcomed into the fraternity: Paul Edmunds, Arthur Jones, Mary Lois Madsen, Halcyn Robins, and Carol Williams. New members signed the book and Elizabeth Darley presented each with a copy of the creed.

Ray Burtenshaw read a tribute to LaMont Tueller; a moment of silence was observed in respect to Mr. Tueller.

Minutes of 1975 Annual Meeting were read and approved. Elizabeth Darley read the financial report. Wallace Sjoblom reported that he and Bernice Palfreyman had audited the records and found them to be in order. The financial report was approved as read.

Ray Burtenshaw presented the ballot for 1977 officers.

President Lemon announced that the first certificates of merit would be presented at the banquet. Recipients were nominated by area coordinators. President Lemon also reported the summer luncheon meeting for retirees held in Salt Lake City during June. At this meeting Alvin and Hortense Carpenter invited the group to their home during June 1977. President Lemon also reported the intended quarterly newsletter from the National Organization.

Paul Grimshaw gave a report of the Western Region Workshop which he attended in Casper, Wyoming, during 1976. Mr. Grimshaw will represent the Iota Chapter at the National meeting this November in Washington D.C.

Ray Burtenshaw reported that Ruth Coates had been elected Vice President and Amy R. Kearsley, historian. For the 1977 year, Paul Grimshaw will be elevated to President. The term of secretary-treasurer is for three years, so Elizabeth Darley will serve another year.

Mr. Grimshaw gave the objectives of Epsilon Sigma Phi and presented a slide series about the fraternity, made available through the National Organization.

Meeting adjourned at 7:00 p.m. for the Annual Extension Conference Banquet. Recipients of Certificates of Merit awarded at the banquet were: Administrators and Specialists, Marden Broadbent; County Agents, L. Darrell Stokes; and Extension Home Economists, Ruth D. Coates.
