I have a friend I see in the park,

The man with the pretty balloons.

He's always cheery from dawn until dark,

The man with the pretty balloons

He has red ones, blue ones,

Shiny bright new ones,

Cute ones that whistle a tune,

And all the day long

He keeps singing this song,

Balloons, Balloons, Balloons!

"Balloons, Balloons, Balloons,"

—A Childrens Song

Epsilon Sigma Phi

Epsilon Sigma Phi is the National Honorary Extension Fraternity. It began in January 1927, in Bozeman, Montana.

Utah's Iota Chapter held it's first meeting on May 9, 1927, at the Eccles Hotel located in Logan, Utah. The first initiation ceremony honored six candidates and was held July 1927.

Purpose

The Purpose of Epsilon Sigma Phi is to maintain the standards and ideals, to uphold the morale prestige and respect of the Extension Service, to develop an effective working relationship and a spirit of fraternal fellowship among present and former Extension employees and to promote professionalism within the Extension Service.

Emblem

The official emblem of Epsilon Sigma Phi has a wall of Troy built around the outside symbolizing the protection which the fraternity gives to its members. The "E" on the stem of the key signifies Extension. The Greek letters are interpreted to mean Extension Service Veteran.
