

Statewide Phone Survey of Utah Residents' Attitudes Toward Recreational Trails

Statewide Phone Survey of Utah Residents' Attitudes Toward Recreational Trails

A statewide phone survey of 2,590 adults in Utah's seven planning districts about their opinions on the values and benefits of recreational trails, their awareness and use of trails, and their perception of needs and preferences related to trails in the state.

Read the full report here, and additional resources below.

Appendices

- Survey Results: Bear River Planning District
- Survey Results: Wasatch Front Planning District
- Survey Results: Mountainland Planning District
- Survey Results: Uinta Basin Planning District
- Survey Results: Central Planning District
- Survey Results: Southeastern Planning District
- Survey Results: Southwestern Planning District
- Survey Instrument

Fact Sheets

- Outdoor Recreation Availability and Participation Across Utah's Seven Planning Districts
- Utahns and Recreational Trails: Statewide Phone Survey Summary Results