

4-H PROGRAM HOURS

Mon–Thurs. 3:30–6 pm

Daily Schedule Includes:

- Lesson & Activity
- Healthy Snack
- Homework Help
- Physical Activity
- 4-H Clubs

TO MAKE THE BEST BETTER

is the 4-H Motto & what we strive to do.

We are excited to inspire youth to learn and grow their skills and talents and to make their best efforts better through 4-H Afterschool.

TO REGISTER FOR THIS YEAR CONTACT:

Marla Hoyt

marla.hoyt@usu.edu
(435) 267-1756

USU Extension Iron County Office
585 N Main St. #4 Cedar City, UT
Phone: 435-586-8132

IRON COUNTY ELEMENTARY PROGRAM LOCATIONS

EAST ELEMENTARY
IRON SPRINGS ELEMENTARY
NORTH ELEMENTARY

Extension

UtahStateUniversity®

4-H ELEMENTARY AFTER-SCHOOL PROGRAM

WHAT IS 4-H AFTERSCHOOL?

4-H Afterschool offers engaging programs outside school hours where kids participate in enriching activities , build skills, and develop lifelong friendships in a supportive environment.

PROGRAM PRIORITIES

- Healthy Living
- Leadership Skills
- Physical Activity and Nutrition
- Positive Youth Development
- Life Skills
- Stem
- Youth Mentoring

WHAT TO EXPECT FROM 4-H AFTERSCHOOL

- Homework Support: Youth will have a set time daily for school assignments and homework help with 4-H educators.
- A Positive Environment: 4-H educators will provide youth with a safe, productive, and positive environment with opportunities to improve themselves.
- Building Connections: Youth will be surrounded by peers, mentors and 4-H educators to develop safe and healthy relationships/friendships.
- Family Night Out: Once a month, students and their families are invited to a free dinner with fun activities alongside the 4-H educators and mentors.

YOUR ROLE

- Enroll your student in the 4-H Afterschool program and complete all paperwork.
- Encourage consistent attendance and a positive attitude toward the 4-H Afterschool program.
- Communicate with 4-H educators about any concerns or challenges they can help your child with.
- Attend Family Night Out to get to know the families of other youth and the 4-H staff.