

What is 4-H?

4-H is America's largest youth development organization, empowering nearly six million young people across the United States with life skills, confidence, leadership, and service.

utah4-H.org

Utah4-H.org offers a vast supply of resources for its volunteers to use. There are club curriculums and ideas, links to existing 4-H programs, and an online volunteer training to help you get started. Also available online, is a list of upcoming 4-H events for both you and your club members to enjoy!

In 4-H, we believe in the power of young people. We see that every child has valuable strengths and real influence to improve the world around us. Thank you for your interest in this inspiring program!

EXTENSION
UtahStateUniversity

4-H volunteers are the key to a successful 4-H program. They have the unique ability to provide life changing opportunities for youth. 4-H offers an endless amount of opportunities for volunteers. 4-H will help you to become involved and make a difference for the youth in your community.

Become a 4-H Volunteer

1. 4-H volunteers are required to enroll through 4-H Online (www.4honline.com). Contact your County Extension Office for registration help and questions.
2. You can become a club leader of an existing 4-H club or start your own! Starting your own 4-H club is easier than ever with Discover 4-H Club Curriculum Guides! These guides can be found online or in your County Extension Office.
3. Share your expertise and learn alongside your members. Help your club prepare for and get involved in events that give them a chance to share what they've learned or created like the County and State Fairs! Watch for county, region, and state events, camps, workshops etc. for your club to enjoy!

160 N. Main, Nephi, 623-3450
extension.usu.edu/juab
Utah State University is an affirmative action/equal opportunity institution.