I. GENERAL RULES:

The 2018 Salt Lake County Junior Livestock Show (Show) will be open to ALL 4-H and FFA exhibitors in the state of Utah.

Each exhibitor must be a member of a 4-H Club or FFA Chapter during the current year before tagging of any animals. Exhibitor must declare membership for any given show as either a 4-H member or an FFA member.

4-H ages and grades are based on the 4-H year, October 1st through September 30th. Age divisions are determined by age and grade as of October 1st of the current year.

- Junior members: Grades 3 – 5 and at least 8 years old as of October 1st.
 - Intermediate members: Grades 6 – 8.
 - Senior members: Grades 9 – 12 (as noted in state rules).
1. Only beef, lamb, hog, and goat exhibits can enter the show.
 2. Pens will be assigned by number prior to weigh-in. No pens may be locked prior to assigning. All pens for market and breeding animals must be cleaned and mats replaced, if needed. There will be a $25 penalty deducted from the sales check if stalls are left uncleaned. If you did not have any animals run through the sale, the penalty must be paid prior to tagging the following year. Youth that attend and participate in the Sunday morning clean-up, will receive a portion of the penalty dollars retained.
 3. No animal with evidence of external parasites including scaly skin on hogs, contagious diseases or any animal endangering human life can remain on the fairgrounds at the discretion of the Show veterinarian. Animals not manageable will be withdrawn.
 4. Most clipping or shearing should be done before livestock arrives on the fairgrounds. However, fitting on the grounds is allowed. The fitting of animals will take place in tack stalls only. No fitting of animals will take place in the alleyways (except for beef). Parents, guardians, siblings, club leaders, Extension/4-H agents and FFA advisors may assist and are encouraged to assist the younger exhibitors. However, each exhibitor must be working with the project animal and be in attendance with that animal during the entire fitting process.
 5. Exhibitor's project animals must remain for the duration of the show. Animals can only be removed upon approval by the Board.
 6. Funds earned from the Salt Lake County Junior Livestock Auction (Auction) are paid to 4-H/FFA exhibitors by permission of the Board.
 7. Exhibits properly tagged may show at county, area, or state shows. Exhibits sold at the Auction will not be eligible to be exhibited at other state shows.
 8. Members must exhibit their own animal in market, showmanship, and the sale unless two animals are in the same weight class or star class.

9. Ownership of animals - The exhibitor will own, feed, and care for his/her project animal(s) for not less than 100 consecutive days for market beef and 60 consecutive days for market swine, market sheep and market goats immediately prior to the show they intend to participate in. No interruption of ownership or possession can occur.
10. Animal abuse WILL NOT BE tolerated. If any animal is being abused, the animal and exhibitor will be excused and removed from the fairgrounds at the Board's discretion.
11. The Salt Lake County Junior Livestock Show will not be held responsible for any accident, injury, illness, loss or damage of animals or property that may occur during the show or in route to or from the show.

II. TAGGING:

1. The Salt Lake County Jr. Livestock Show will accept out of county tags from the state of Utah, provided the tags are "official" county tags. Exhibitors wishing to participate in the Salt Lake County Jr. Livestock Show must ensure that their project animal(s) attends at least one tagging event even if the animal(s) has already been tagged for other county/state shows. At which time, exhibitors must declare which animals are for the Salt Lake County Jr. Livestock Show. Exceptions will be given only for extenuating hardship. THIS RULE WILL BE ENFORCED.
2. Market and Breeding animals will both need to be tagged and must be designated as breeding or market (scrapie's tag is sufficient for breeding goats and sheep).
3. Each exhibitor is allowed to tag three (3) exhibits per market species and breeding species. However, they are only allowed to weigh in and show two (2) exhibits in each species. A limit of three (3) animals per exhibitor at the Auction.
4. Under extenuating hardship, exhibits may be tagged within two weeks of the announced tagging date. There will be a fee for animals being tagged after the tagging deadline. Upon the death or major injury of a project animal, a substitution may be allowed only by permission of the Board. Immediately notify the Livestock President to contact the board and determine if substitution of another animal may be permitted. However, not all requests will be accepted, so it is strongly advised to tag additional show animals when possible. Please refer to the above tagging rules for more information.
5. Any change to the tagging procedure must be approved by the Board.
6. A $10.00 show registration fee is paid at tagging per animal. This fee must be paid prior to crossing the scale.
7. Tagging deadlines and Ownership of animals - The exhibitor will own, feed, and care for his/her project animal(s) for not less than 100 consecutive days for market beef and 60 consecutive days for market swine, market sheep and market goats immediately prior to the show they intend to participate in. No interruption of ownership or possession can occur.

8. Floater: Tagging of a floater will be allowed for each species; however, the floater needs to be designated at tagging and a fee of $5.00 paid for each exhibitor that wishes to designate it as a floater. This rule applies to siblings and club members only and under hardship circumstances. If there is more than one hardship that involves the same floater, please refer to the board.

III. WEIGH IN:

1. Market animals will be weighed in only during the specified time.
2. The following weight limitations will be strictly enforced.

Species	Minimum Weight	Maximum Weight
Beef	1000 lbs.	None
Lambs	100 lbs.	None
Hogs	215 lbs.	290 (pay out)
Goats	40 lbs.	None

3. Hogs weighing over 290 pounds will be allowed to show; however, they will not be paid for weight over this amount.
4. Underweight animals may remain at the fairgrounds and show in showmanship classes only. Other participation by the exhibitor is prohibited with that specific animal. Underweight animals are not eligible to participate in the Auction.
5. Exhibitors showing beef must bring proof of ownership or brand inspection during weigh-in and to obtain entry into the Salt Lake County Jr. Livestock Show.
6. If animals meet the minimum weight requirement, they WILL NOT be allowed to cross the scale again. However, animals that DO NOT meet the minimum requirement can cross the scale one additional time prior to the closing of weigh-in. No drenching of animals will be allowed, and animals must be dry when crossing the scale. Weights are final when animals leave the scale.

III. CODE OF ETHICS:

The Code of Ethics applies to anyone exhibiting animals in livestock shows in the state of Utah. It includes Junior as well as Open Class exhibitors who compete in structured classes of competition. All classes of livestock offered at the livestock events are included.

All Grand and Reserve animals will have their blood drawn/urine captured immediately upon exit of the show ring. A random sample of 2 collections will be tested. If residue is identified during the testing process, the exhibitor may be suspended from showing for one year. Upon returning to the show all the exhibitor's animals will have their blood drawn/urine captured with one random sample being tested. This test will be at the exhibitor's expense. If residue is found a second time, the exhibitor may be suspended from showing indefinitely.

The following practices or procedures are unacceptable and are defined as deceptive, fraudulent, unethical, and inhumane in the care, fitting, preparation, and showing of all classes of livestock:

- The use of any illegal drugs is prohibited.
- Legal or illegal substances used to phenotypically alter the appearance of animals entered in livestock events are prohibited.
- Use of illegal drugs is considered a premeditated act.
- Any information obtained in the practice of illegal alteration of an animal will be turned over to the proper authorities for criminal prosecution.
- Treating an animal internally or externally, with any irritant, counterirritant, or other substance used to artificially change the conformation or appearance of an animal for show is considered unethical, inhumane, and is prohibited. This includes, but is not limited to, the use of graphite, powders, hemp, artificial hair, coloring, common products such as fly spray, ointment, or liniment used to the point that it is irritating, or similar type products. The use of dyes, spray paint, or other artificial coloring, which results in altering an animal's true and natural appearance and/or color, is prohibited. Adding false hair or hair-like material, fleece, or skin at any point, spot, or area of the animal's body is illegal and will result in immediate disqualification. Any liquid or substance not considered part of an accepted and normal diet for livestock is deemed illegal and inhumane. For example: the use of alcoholic or carbonated beverages as a drench or filler, etc. Drenching will not be allowed unless the show veterinarian or a show official is present and is needed for emergency purposes only.
- The use of tranquilizers, sedatives, or depressants, which alter the physical or physiological state of the animal, is illegal. Exceptions to this rule would be licensed, certified veterinarians, treatment for a recognized disease or injury, or recommendation for tranquilizing breeding animals in heat that might compromise the safety of others. The drugs must be approved by the Food and Drug Administration for use in meat producing animals. All exhibitors will advise show management of any drug and/or medication administered to an animal that might be detected at the time of showing or at meat inspection. The name of the drug, its purpose, the person who administered the drug, time, and date of administration will be presented to show management prior to the showing and sale of the animals. Failure to report this information will result in severe penalty and/or disqualification. Any use of drugs or substances not approved by the Food and Drug Administration is strictly prohibited. All animals entered in to livestock competition will be subject to testing for foreign substances that exceed acceptable levels established by the FDA, FSIS, USDA, or EPA. During the livestock event, in the case of an animal requiring treatment, all medication shall be administered by a licensed veterinarian and the livestock show officials shall be notified.
- Surgery, injection or insertion of foreign material under the skin and/or into the flesh of animal to change the natural contour, conformation, or appearance of an animal's body is illegal. This includes vegetable oil, silicon, or any other substance used to alter an animal's shape. Acceptable practices of physical preparations, which are allowed, include: clipping of hair, trimming of hooves, dehorning, or removal of ancillary teats.

- The use of inhumane fitting, showing, and handling practices or devices shall not be tolerated. For example: breaking of tails, striking of the animal to cause swelling or for bracing purposes, use of an electrical contrivance, etc. is not acceptable.
- Direct criticism or interference with the judge, show management, other exhibitors, breed representatives, or show officials before, during, or after the competitive event is prohibited.
- At the time an animal is sold at Auction at the livestock show, the exhibitors shall be held directly responsible for animals that are rejected at the processing center for any reason. The seller may be liable to the buyer for an amount equal to three times the purchase price and may also be liable for attorney's fees and civil penalties. Show management may share acceptable intelligence and evidence information with FDA or USDA. If, for any reason, the FDA or USDA inspectors must remove any part of a meat animal carcass, the market price will be discounted.
- Show management reserves the right to require animal health certificates. Health inspection and diagnostic tests may be made before or after animals are on the livestock show premises for exhibitor and animal safety, or to inaugurate disease control procedures which may become necessary in emergencies as determined by animal health officials. Any violation of the "Utah State Junior Livestock Code of Ethics" or specific rules as designated by individual fairs and livestock shows will result in forfeiture of premiums and awards, disqualification, and may result in probationary status and/or loss of eligibility for future participation in organized livestock competitions. Possible civil penalties may be imposed by the proper authorities based on evidence provided by the livestock show of exhibitors in violation of the Federal Food, Drug and Cosmetic act/or the animal mistreatment, neglect, and abandonment laws that apply on the local, state, and national levels. Other cooperating shows will be notified of the action taken by show management, which may affect the eligibility of the individual, group, or sponsoring organization for participation at other shows. The decision of the livestock show management will be final.
- No muzzles will be allowed for any animal.

IV. DRESS CODE:

4-H Dress Code: A long or short sleeve shirt, which fastens down the front with a collar, is mandatory. Shirts must be white in color and need not be Western style. 4. Buyers who wish to purchase an animal for their own use will be charged the total bid price. Buyers must arrange for their own purchased, animal's transportation.

5. The Board has arranged for a contractor to buy Auction animals at the floor price, which is near the current market price. The total price paid for an animal is usually a combination of the floor price and a boost price. Sponsors who wish to boost the bid beyond the floor price will be charged only for the amount above the floor price with the livestock contractor paying the floor price and receiving the animal.
6. Many bids are a combination of multiple boosters arranged before the Auction. Junior Livestock Exhibitors are encouraged to find their own sponsors for the booster bids and to have someone present to do the bidding. In the case of multiple boosters on a single animal, the total should be combined into one bid and be under one bidder's signature and paid with one check.
7. The person making the winning bid will sign for the final price of the animal and be responsible for full payment at time of sale. No animal will be released until payment is made.
8. Except for the Grand, Reserve, and Third slot animals, no additional boost money will be accepted after the final bid is taken by the auctioneer. All other amounts are final when the auctioneer sets the price.
