CONTEST INVITATIONAL

January 7 - 9th, 2021

4-H Horse Public Speaking Contest

GENERAL INFORMATION

The Horse Public Speaking contest provides an opportunity for youth enrolled in 4-H horse projects to demonstrate their knowledge of equine-related subject matter while improving their public speaking skills. This is a competitive contest where attitudes of friendliness and fairness prevail. The horse public speaking contest is an educational experience for participants and spectators, and provides skills that will be used in many settings.

Contest Rules

1. The subject matter must pertain to the horse industry. Speeches not appropriately related to the horse industry can be disqualified at the discretion of the judges.
2. No visual aids may be used.
3. No coaching from parents or coaches during the speech. Once the individual has started their speech, they may not receive assistance from any coach, parent, audience member, or other person. The penalty for violating this rule is disqualification.
4. Contestants may use notes. However, excessive use of notes may be counted against the contestant. This will be at the discretion of the judges.
5. During the competition, the contestants may introduce themselves by name, state and speech topic.
6. Speeches should be 7-10 minutes in length for the senior division, 6 – 8 minutes for intermediates, and a minimum of 5 minutes for juniors.
 - A. Three points will be deducted from the total score on each judge's score sheet for every minute (or fraction of a minute) under 7 minutes or over 10 minutes for senior division.
 - B. Juniors and intermediates will not have a penalty for going over their time limit (up to 10 minutes) but will be penalized 3 points for every minute or fraction of a minute below the designated time limit.
 - C. After the individual has been introduced by the superintendent, the time will start once the contestant begins to speak.
7. Contestants should cite their major reference materials at the end of their speech. This time will not be counted in the allotted time.
8. Judges will ask their questions first, and then the audience members may be given the opportunity to ask additional questions. Judges will not take the questions and answers during the audience time into consideration. Question time will not be counted in the allotted time. Contestants should repeat the question, and then answer it.

9. Contestant order will be determined by a random drawing and announced at the coach's meeting.
10. No videotaping or photographing of presentation is allowed during the contest. A videographer will be provided by the contest. If one is not available it will be announced at the coach's meeting and other arrangements can be made.
11. Improper attire will be a violation and appropriate points deducted on the score card. Improper attire will be determined at the discretion of the judges. Business attire or dress appropriate to the speech is acceptable.
12. Three judges will be used and judges will score each entry independently and assign scores. After all presentations are presented and score are tabulated, judges may confer and discuss evaluations. Each judge assigns his or her final scores and then cumulative final scores are tabulated to determine the final placings. Contest superintendents may review and check tabulation of scores for mathematical accuracy.
13. The judge's scores are final; however ties will be broken by the following order: 1) judges' accumulated delivery score 2) by the judges' accumulated organization score and 3) on the contest and accuracy scores.
14. The judges will use the attached scorecards. Contestants should review them carefully and understand how they will be scored throughout their presentation.
