

David Figge Quick Bio

David Figge, is a proud resident of Herriman, Utah, and a dynamic individual with a passion for leadership, innovation, and helping others make a real life impact. With a diverse background spanning security expertise, health science advocacy, and professional business mentoring, David has made his mark as the owner and founder of many types of businesses ventures. He is a dedicated private investor helping small businesses get their start and his career includes many different roles and leadership positions. David brings a wealth of knowledge and an engaging perspective to today's event and always is thinking of ways we can all work together to find "our" next level.

