June Messages

Summer is finally here and 4-H activities are off to a great start. June is packed with Aggie Camps, a Sportsmanship Clinic, Horse Shows, our Livestock Showmanship Show, a Public Speaking Contest, Shooting Sports activities, STEM at the libraries, and countless club activities. Thank you to all the club leaders and volunteers who put so much time and energy into making 4-H a great place for youth to learn and grow. We appreciate the community support from businesses who help make our events possible. As we gear up for a summer full of fun, I hope we all can remember to take the time to thank those who make our endeavors possible. Make some great memories and don't forget to "Make the Best Better."

Sharon Bee
Weber County 4-H
Program Coordinator

Summer is here with lots of fun events and activities. I hope everyone gets to enjoy as many as possible. Trying new things is always exciting and rewarding.

4-H is about welcoming and supporting all kids; focusing on people, not just projects. People have feelings, ideas, dreams, and goals. They can be kind, creative, and make a positive difference in the world. This happens when people think about others. When they think only about themselves, they become selfish and see others as objects to be used.

4-H uses projects to help kids grow and have positive experiences. There are so many different kinds of projects that kids can try in 4-H. We started with corn crops in 1902 and, over the past 120 years, we've added hundreds of projects beyond agriculture. We still teach a lot about farming, but 4-H members all over the country and the world are also learning about technology, the arts, social justice, and more. 4-H aims to create safe, supportive environments where kids can learn and work on what they love. In these environments, they develop important skills like teamwork, critical thinking, compassion, and communication, along with empathy and other social skills they need to succeed.

All kids deserve to feel they belong and are safe in 4-H, and we are here to welcome and support them. We want everyone to feel safe and included in this program.

Best wishes,
David

Program Coordinator

- For an Impromptu Speech, contestants will select a topic for their speech by randomly drawing three questions/statements from a pool of topics. They will select one question/statement and return the other two. Contestants will be allowed 3 minutes to organize their thoughts before beginning their presentation.
- Giving a 4-H project demonstration can be fun! In a demonstration, you show and tell about a fact, idea, or process. You've probably given demonstrations in the past but didn't know it.
