

Weber County 4-H Virtual Videography Contest

Purpose

The Weber County 4-H Virtual Videography Contest encourages self-expression and allows youth to demonstrate skills learned in storyboarding, video making, and editing, including the use of video equipment, lightening, perspective, visual storytelling, animations and other artistic and technical skills.

Objectives

- To develop life skills in composition, light, point of view, storytelling, digital editing, and continuity.
- To gain knowledge of camera types and settings, resolution, perspective, animations and other videography skills and concepts.
- To encourage 4-H members to use video as a medium for visual storytelling.
- To provide a showcase for development and mastery of videography skill and artistic storytelling.
- To encourage the creation of videos which can promote and strengthen the 4-H program.

Entry Requirements

- Teams: Participants can enter individually or as a team of up to three members. The entry will be entered into the age division of the older participating member. Entries by teams must include a statement explaining each team member's role in the development of the project.
- Theme: Entry should emulate one of the pillars of 4-H: Agriculture, Civic Engagement, Healthy Living, or STEM or the topics of "Head," "Heart," "Hands," or "Health." An artist's statement should be included in the entry explaining how the entry emulates the chosen 4-H pillars or topics.
- Format: Videos must be in mp4 format, or available through an online venue. Videos should be 45 seconds to 3 minutes in length.
- Where to Enter: Entries should be submitted via ZSuite under Digital Arts Contest. Youth must register on ZSuite to participate. Youth may enter one project per category.

What to Submit

1. Video: submit your entry following the guidelines under "Entry Requirements."
